

A Girl (Just Like the Girl)

Peter J Casey
(with apologies to Harry von Tilzer
and William Dillon)

Freely ♩ = c.150

mp

'Though love - ly girls have come and gone, I've

mp

p

etc.

5

ne-ver found The One, who'll have me for a hus-band when my roam-ing days are

p

10

done. The world has girls to sett-le for, yes, make-weights are a - bun - dant, but

p

15

I will ne-ver give up look-ing a round, 'til the day I find a girl like Fa - ther found...

19 Easy 2 $\text{♩} = 100$

mf I want a girl, just like the girl that ma-ried dear old Dad. Not my mo-ther, mo-ther ma-ried Dad a

25

etc.

8vb

30

cou-ple of wives be fore. She was brill-iant but a chore, and his

34

new girl is a diff-erent sto - ry. She has no vo - cab - u -

39

la - ry, but her bott-om's ex - tra - or - di - na - ry, and she finds his Dad jokes

43

hi-la - ri - ous. Fa - ther says "Great-est wife I ev - er had." So I

48

Faster ♩ = 115

want a girl just like the girl that just ma-rried Dad.

53

mf

This Christ-mas, I will sit, a full grown man, on San-ta's

58

knees. I'll point to both my pa-rents and say "Fa-ther Christ-mas, please, that

63

Step-MILF, but a wife?" He'll say "Ho, ho, ho, I'm not Je - sus. If

67

I could or-der that from a - ny old elf, don't you think I would-a got one

8vb

70

for my- self? I want a girl just like the girl

8va

light

75

that ma-rried dear old Dad. Not my 80

mo-ther, she liked con - ver - sa - tion, in-ti-mate thoughts and trust... There was no-thing un - dis- cussed. Does my Dad share now? Too bu-sy, bus - ter

84

88

He says "Son, one more se - mes - ter, - 'til she moves in, I wear

93

pol - y - est - er and no - bo - dy men - tions cho - les - te - rol. Law - yers

97

say my pre - nup - tial's i - ron - clad." — Yeah, I want a girl just like the girl that ma - rried - Does she have a sis - ter? Just a girl just like the girl — that

101

106

f

ma-rried-How's your health, Pa- pa?_ I want a girl just like the girl that

f

110

ma - rried lu - cky Dad.

f

8va

113

ff

8va